Special Notes/Announcements

Chief McDonald participated as a panelist for the Community Forum at Palisades, detailing Youth Mental Health. This was a fantastic event and was an honor and privilege to be requested as a panelist.

All Police personnel were recertified with their Electronic Control Weapons (ECW), otherwise known as Tasers

The National Drug Take Back event was again a success. Springfield Township collected 36.84 lbs. at the event and 33.42 lbs from the permanent take back box located in the vestibule at Headquarters

The Springfield Township Police participated in the Springtown Parade as well as the Trick-or-Treating in Springtown. These are both great community events the Police Dept. takes pride in participating in.

Chief McDonald participated in the second meeting of the Co-Responder Program. There is a 2-year no cost evaluation period for the program. In the second year, an analysis of use and effectiveness will be conducted in order to determine if it is beneficial to the Township. Essentially a cost/benefit analysis. The BOS will be apprised of the results and costs.
